Are Held to Be Within the Province of the House.

AND COURTS WILL NOT INTERFERE

Chairman Springer Is Laid Up With Erysipelas.

AND WILL BE ABSENT FOR TEN DAYS

Senstor Gordon Is Also Ill-The Macon Telegraph's Editor in Washington. News from the Nation's Capital.

WASHINGTON, February 29.—[Special.]— The decision of the supreme court today, declaring the constitutionality of an act of congress passed by a quorum of the house counted by Speaker Reed, but not by a quorum of actnal voters, has caused the Maine men much

His friends declare that it is an endorsement by the highest court in the world of his acts. and that, therefore, they were correct. They claim that Speaker Crisp and all other speak ers will have the same right now, but the democrats look upon the decision as simply meaning that the court has decided that, under the constitution, each house has a right to make its own rules, and that any laws passed under the rules adopted by a majority of the house are constitutional. The rules of the present house contain no provision for the speaker counting a quorum when a quorum is not recorded as voting, as the construction democrats have always put upon the constitution is that a quorum must not only be present, but present and recorded as voting.

Chairman Springer III.

Chairman Springer, of the ways and means committee, is ill with erysipelas. His physiclan says it will be ten days before he can resume his duties in the house. While it is a disappointment to all democrats that Mr. Springer will not be able to open the tariff discussion, still it will not be delayed. Mr. Mc-Millin will assume charge, and the bills will probably be called up and the discussion opened on Wednesday or Thursday. The debate will last more than two weeks, including night sessions. Nearly every member of the house has already spoken for time to deliver a speech on this question, and the house will be treated to oratory galore for many days to

Senator Gordon Ill. Senator Gordon has been confined to his room for several days with the prevailing grip. He is not seriously sick, however, and will, perhaps, be in his seat before the end of the Colonel E. C. Machen spent today here among the newspaper correspondents. Colo-nel Machen is arranging for a special Washington department of The Macon Telegraph. He goes to New York tomorrow.

The Silver Bill. In the house Mr. Catchings, from the committee on rules, reported a resolution providing that on Tuesday, March 22d, immediately after the morning hour, the house shall proceed to the consideration of the silver bill, and should said bill be not sooner disposed of, the house shall continue consideration thereof during Wednesday, the 23d, and Thursday,

The resolution was ordered printed and Mr. Catchings gave notice that he would ask the house to consider it on Monday next.

Amendment to the Rules. Mr. McMillin, from the rules committee, reported a resolution providing that at 5 o'clock on Fridays the honse shall take a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of bills granting private pensions, removing political disabilities and removing the charge of desertion. This amendment to the rules is brought in to overcome the difficulty encountered last Friday, when it was contended that should the house adjourn before 8 o'clock it would have to convene as a new day's session preceded by reading the journal and prayer by the chaplain at that hour. The resolution was adopted.

The Constitutionality of the McKinley Act. Three cases, in which the importers sought to test the constitutionality of the McKinley tariff act, were today decided by the United States supreme court. The title of these three cases are: Boyd, Sutton & Co., and Herman Sternbach & Co., each, vs. United States and Joel B. Erhardt, collector of the port of New York, and Marshall, Field & Co., vs. Clark, collector of the port of Chicago. The ground on which it was maintained that the tariff was unconstitutional was that the tobacco rebate section of the bill had been omitted in its enrollment after passage by congress, and therefore that the bill signed by the president was not the bill passed by the legislative department of the government; that the reciprocity feature was the transmission to the executive of the lawmaking power, and there fore void, vitiating the whole act; and lastly that the act was void because of the sugar bounty provision. The court confirmed the cuit courts of the United States in favor of the constitutionality of the act.

The Day in the Senate. The senate was entertained by a bill introduced by Leland Stanford, to make 25.8 grains the un form standard by which shall be determined the value of a dollar. Mr. Voorhees delivered a speech in favor of free coinage, after which the senate spent the day in consideration of the Idaho contested elec tion case. The Importation of a Rector. In the case of the Church of the Holy Trinity of New York, to test the question of Its right to import a rector, Rev. Mr. the United States supreme court today reversed the action of the lower court, and decided in favor of the church and Mr. Warren.

FREE COTTON BAGGING.

Mr. Turner Ready With His Report on the Bill. '

WASHINGTON, February 29 .- Following is the re port of Mr. Turner, of Georgia, from the ways and means committee, in favor of the bill to admit free of duty, bagging for cotton, machinery for manufacturing bagging, cotton ties and cotton

The bill proposes an act of tardy justice to those who contribute the chief item of our export trade.
We sent abroad during twelve months ended December 31, 1891, 5,927,852 bales of cotton, of the : cember 31, 1891, 5,927,852 bales of cotton, of the sargregate value of $227,038,511. The concession which this measure contemplates is coincident with the greatest depression which the producers of cotton have suffered in a generation. The time is ripe for some mitigation of their burdens. Cotton, when sold in the markets of Europe, is subjected to a tare, or deduction, for bagging and ties. The American price is fixed relatively to the price paid for cotton abroad. The cost, therefore, of covering and ties which inclose lint, is a sacrifice inflicted on the cotton grower in both foreign and home markets. The argument which inveighs against the exemption of ties from daty, while the land, iron or steel, from which they are made is still subject to duty, is without force, under these circumstances. The principle of the drawback applies here in full force; bagging is covered by the same sort of equity. The right to resort to imported bagging and ties wil, it is confidently believed, protect farmers and laborers engaged in the production of cotton against corners and combinations among those who, under the present tariff, control the supply of these indispensable articles. The exemption of machinery used in the manufacture of bagging, is proposed in this bill for the benefit of American bagging factories. They already have their raw materials free.

An additional reason is suggested by the fact that, if these very simple machines can be imported free, the farmers themselves can join in the production of bagging. They will thus have in their own hands a final defense against trusts and monopolies. They are still smarting from the oppression which a very recent combination imposed, the raising of the price of bagging nearly 100 per cent. The offect of the McKimley rates upon bagging and ties has not yet been fully developed. The first result has been to cut off the importations of these articles. The next step will be an augmentation of price. Trust is always a possible supplement to protection.

Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, is preparing the report of the republican minority in opposition to the bill.

SIGNING THE PAPERS

For the Submission of the Behring Sea Quarrel to Arbitration.

Quarrel to Arbitration.

Washington, February 29.—Negotiations between the United States and Great Britain looking to the submission to arbitration of the long-pending controversy between the two countries in regard to the Behring sea seal fisheries, reached a favorable condition today. Sir Julian Pauncefote, British minister, met Secretary Blaine by appointment at the state department today, and signed a treaty of arbitration on behalf of Great Britain. He said he had been fully authorized by Lord Salisbury to take this action. Mr. Blaine signed the document on behalf of this government, and the matter was con-Blaine signed the document on behalf of this goverment, and the matter was consummated, so far as the diplomatic part of the business is concerned. The treaty is still subject, however, to the action of the British parliament and the United States senate. The exact terms of the treaty cannot now be stated, but it is known that the board of arbitration will consist of seven persons, two representing the United States, two representing Great Britain (one of whom is to be a Canadian) and one each representing the neutral governments of France, Sweden and Italy. The secretary of state has received official notice of a definite agreement for the establishment of a commercial reciprocity treaty between France and the United States.

WYNDHAM GILMER'S STORY.

He Tells What He Knows of Dr. Baker and

Mrs. Glimer. ABINGDON, Va., February 23.—In the Baker trial today, Wyndham Gilmer, the wronged husband, stated that Dr. Baker attended him when he was sick two years ago, when it was alleged that he was poisoned; that one night he took some liquid by spoonfulis, and that one particular night two capsules were given him. He became restless and another was administered, which made him vomit and purge. He experienced a numbress of the limbs, a twitching of flesh and a burning sensa-tion in the stomach. Baker called the next morning and told him if he hadtaken another capsule he would have been a dead man. That he had seen actions between the doctor and Mrs. Gimer that he considered impro-er, but nothing that induced him to believe that criminal relations existed: that he did not want oriminal relations existed; that he did not want Dr. Baker to treat him, but his wife came to his bed and cried and asked him to permit it; that he had heard reports of Dr. Baker and told him to be prudent and visit his house as other gentlemen; that he had driven him from his house and told him that he felt like breaking a stick over his (the doctor's) head. He orther testified that since the other trial he had yed with Mrs, G liner as his w fe and continued to do so until she testified the other day; that is not so living now because she wrote a letter Dr. Baker a few days ago.

ARREST OF WHISKY MEN.

The Trust Has Been Violating the Law, and feeding and distilling company, were nominally arrested here today by being requested to appear before Commissioner Hooper. The warrant requires their appearance at Boston forthwith. They are using the telegraph today with the view of going in a body if that is necessary. Hobart says some dealers in Boston who handled some of the rebate have also been indicted. The indictment is of an omnibus character, making its charges against the officers and directors in a body.

Late this afternoon District Attorney Allen stated that indictments had been found, charging officers of the trust with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Mr. Allen also added his belief that never in the history of the courts had there been a case presented where so much pressure was brought to bear upon a district attorney not to prosecute, as in this particular instance. He further stated that the indictments were reported on the 23d of Febre and placed at once on secret flies, and the strictest instructions given to the clerks of court not to divulge the fact of the finding of the indictments. Is the news papers should publish the fact and persons proposed to be arrested escape. Mr. Allen, in reply to an inquiry by a reporter, said that he knew that some of the officers had intended to leave the country.

Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., Will Not Answer for the Present. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., February 29.—The personal statement of James G. Blaine with reference to his son's marriage and divorce was not seen by Mrs. Blaine, Jr., nor by her attorney until after noon today. Secretary Blaine's letter was this afternoon read to her counsel, Judge Palmer. He listened attentively to every word, and at the conclusion expressed surprise that Mr. Blaine should have written such a letter.

"Have you anyl reply to make?" was asked.

A very complete answer can and probably will be made," said the judge, "but I shall advise my client to say nothing, in haste and without due consideration. What reply she makes will be as carefully prepared as the letter of Secretary Blaine was." This afternoon Mrs. Blaine declined to be interviewed, saying that for the present she did not care to make any statement to the public.

WILL NOT GIVE IT OUT. Secrétary Blaine Asked for Father Ducey's Reply to His Letter.

Washington, February 29.—A reporter today asked Mr. Blaine for a copy of the letter from Father Ducey in reply to Mr. Blaine's letter censuring him for the part he took in the secret marriage of James G. Blaine Jr., to Miss Nevins. Mr. Blaine replied that he had no objection to the publication of the letter, but that he would not give it out himself. It was Father Ducey's privilege to publish it. He added casually that the letter did not amount to anything. that the letter did not amount to anything.

The Conservatives in the House of Commens Turned Down

BY A GOOD LIBERAL MAJORITY.

But It Is Claimed That It Is Not a Defeat.

GREAT STRIKE THREATENED.

A Million Miners May Be Idle Within a Few Weeks on Account of a Re-duction of Wages.

LONDON, February 29 .- In the house of commons today the bill promoted by the London county council proposing to connect the tram-ways of south and north London, was opposed by the conservatives as putting in practice the socialist principles held by a majority of the council. The libera's supported the bill.

After long debate the measure passed its second reading by a vote 160 to 158.

The announcement of the vote was greeted with opposition cheers, although it was not a government defeat. The division was conducted with the keenest interest. There was a whip out on each side. The result was tantamount to a liberal victory.

Mr. Gladstone appeared in the house today. A GREAT STRIKE THREATENED.

Nearly Half a Million of Miners in Pipgland to Oult Work.

LONDON, February 29.—It is now estimated that 460,000 miners will cease work in a fortnight in their efforts to prevent the masters from putting into effect a scheme to reduce wages. The only miners who stand aloof from the move-ment are those employed in South Staffordshire and East Worcestershire. Should the threatened ment are those employed in South Staffordshire and East Worcestershire. Should the threatened strike actually occur, it is estimated that close to one million men will feel the effects or the miners' struggle. The agitation is due to the action of mine owners in Wales and Cumberland, who gave an intimation of their intention to reduce wages on a "sliding scale," principally owing to the decline in the price of coal. The men refused to accept the reduction, and declared that mine owners must make the consumers pay. The men offered to form a ring of miners and mine owners to maintain rates. The Mine Owners' Association declared that this would be impossible, as mine owners outside of the association are cutting rates. The men then offered if the present rate of wages was maintained to strike all colleries where the prices were reduced below the rates of the Coal Mine Owners' Association. The Miners' Federation declares that since 1888 it has forced up wages 40 per cent by hard fighting and that it does not mend to have them drop any. The price of coal in London is 3 shillings per ton higher today than Saturday, and by the end of the week it is probable that prices will be doubled.

No Further Trouble Apprehended.

BERLIN, February 29.—Since Saturday night the city has been perfectly quiet, and there has not been a single disturbance that called for armed police interference. It is believed that the disorderly movement has spent its force, and that no further trouble is to be apprehended.

THE WHOLE CITY IN DANGER.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 23 .- Fire broke out among some oil barrels in the storchouse of Mather Bros., wholesale grocers on Broadway and at midnight it had destroyed about a quarter of a CINCINNATI, February 29.—Treasurer William
feeding and distilling company, were nominally the Dean streetend of the storehouse, but it burned like powder, and when the depart-ment arrived the cellar and whole first floor was a regular furnace. Barrels of ol burst as the flames reached them and the blazing offscattered at an appalling rate. At 11 o'clock the firemen succeeded in advancing their lines of hose on the roofs of adjoining buildings and making an entrance from Broadway and began to fight the fire at close quarters, keeping it within the building in which it started and the Bansom

SAFE BLOWERS ARRESTED.

There May Be a Lynching at Milner To night.

Griffin, Ga., February 29 .- (Special.)-Griffin, Ga., February 29.—(Special.)—A wholesale safe blowing occurred at Milner last night. One safe was also torn to atoms here. Messrs. Rice and Hunt, H. L. Lindsay, B. P. Ferguson and J. B. Head, four of Milner's merchants, on opening their stores this morning, found their doors broken open and their safes somewhat out of shape. Rice and Hunt found their safe torn all to pieces. Mr. Lindsay had posted a notice over his combination that the safe torn all to pieces. Mr. Lindsay had possed a notice over his combination that the safe was not locked, and he hoped they would turn the knob and not blow it. They ac-ceded to his wishes, and after going through the drawers, satisfying themselves through the drawers, satisfying themselves they had left no change, they left the store. They got nothing from Ferguson either, and were evidently frightened from Mr. Head's before completing their work. After drilling the safe, they skipped, leaving their tools in the safe. As soon as the robbery became known, suspicion feel on three men who had been seen and regarded with suspicion there on yesterday, and pursuit was immediately given. At Orchard hill, they overhauled and arrested all the parties susoverhauled and arrested all the parties sus overhamen and arrested all the parties suspected. If they prove to be the right parties, it is said Judge Lynch will hold a speedy trial at the little town of Milner tonight, and is to be hoped they have the right parties. The one blown here was the oilmill safe, and only a lot of cancelled checks, some guano notes and certificates of stock is all they got for their work. In all, the night's work netted $3.50, from all, the night's w Rice and Hunt.

The People of Alabama Want a Man Who Can Win.
OPELIKA, Ala., February 29.—[Special.]—There has been quite a change in Opelika and this sec has been quite a change in Opelika and this section on the presidential question. A large number of our most active and preminent democrats believe Hill is the man to nominate for the presidency, especially since New York has speken in such unmistakable terms. They admire Hill's uncompromising democracy and think he can win. They want the man who can be elected, and the sentiment in Hill's favor is growing daily.

Senator Hill Is to Pay a Flying Visit to the City.

A ROUSING WELCOME FOR HIM

He Is Going to Mississippi to Ad dress the General Assembly,

After Which He Will Visit Augusta, and Pass on Back Home Through South Carolina.

THEN BACK TO SAVANNAH HE COMES.

Senator David B. Hill is coming to Atlanta.

He will come from Washington on the vestibuled train March 14th. Senator Hill will probably spend a half hour in Atlanta, and if he does, it goes without saying that he will have a warm welcome at the hands of the citizens, It would be gratifying to his admirers and friends if he could make a longer stay here, but owing to the schedules of railroads and the object of his trip, he will simply be passing through the city on his way to Jackson, Miss., where he goes at the invitation of the general assembly of that state to make a speach. The reception given Senator Hill when here as orator at the unveiling of the monument to the memory of Henry W. Grady is already an evidence of his popularity here; but coming, as he does now, a worthy aspirant to the presidency with the endorsement of the democracy of New York, the nation's Empire State, it is easy and safe to predict that hosts of people will meet him at the carshed and shake him by the hand for the great work of organizing the scattered democracy of his state-pressing him on with many God-speeds to greater victories and better laurels. Atlanta will be glad to see the peerless democrat who is leading his party so bravely out of the wilderness to the dawn of a brighter day.

Atlanta will turn out to greet Senator

Outlining His Trip. The following telegram was received by THE CONSTITUTION last night from Washington telling of his southern trip: WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.-[Special.]-Senator David B. Hill has decided to make a brief southern trip within the next two weeks. The legislature of Mississippi has extended him an invitation to deliver an address before the two houses of that body, and he has accepted, provided the 15th of Merch will be a satisfactory date. He will leave here on the night of the 13th on the Richmond and Danville vestibuled train via Atlanta. He will, perhaps, spend half an hour in Atlanta and reach Jackson on the morning of the 15th. From Jackson he will go to Savannah via Montgomery, Columbus and Americus.

In Savannah he will deliver an address at the celebration of St. Patrick's day. He will, perhaps, stop over a day in Augusta and then return to Washington.

The News in Mississippi. JACKSON, Miss., February 29 .- [Special.]-David B. Hill is to address the legislature on March 15th and he will be given a grand reception here.

It will be remembered that when Mr. Cleveland was in Louisiana, the house of representa tives extended him an invitation, through the governor, to visit the Mississippi capital and address the legislature and people. He replied expressing his thanks for the invitation, but regretting that his arrangements would not permit the visit.

This was soon followed by a similar invitation being extened Senator Hill. The invitation was for him to come between the 1st and

This morning Governor Stone tramsmitted to the house the following telegram:

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 29 .- To Governor John M. Stone, Jackson, Miss. Impossible to accept invitation for as early date as March 5th, but if the date as legislature will be in session on March 15th, will be pleased to accept for that date. Please ascertain the situation and advise me at your convenience.

DAVID B. HILL. Mr. Burkett, the author of the resolution of February 15th, immediately offered the following resolution, which was adopted, and of which Governor Stone immediately wired

Senator Hill:
Whereas, Senator David B. Hill, of New York, having signified a willingness to accept an invitation extended to him by this house through the governor, but being unable to attend at the time fixed in said resolution, suggests March 15th as the date of his visit to Mississippi; therefore,

Resolved, That the governor be requested to inform Senator Hill by telegraph that the date sug gested by him, March 15, 1892, is acceptable to this body, and he is most cordially invited to meet the people of Mississippi at the capital at that

It is needless to say that the crowd that will meet and greet the "I-am-a-democrat" hustler will be one of the greatest that ever assembled in the state. The democrats of Mississippi are great admirers of Hill.

ANGIER AND WIMBISH

Capture the Majority of the Local Republi cans in Last Night's Ward Meetings. The selection of Fulton county's delegation to the district convention of Wednesday in this city, to select delegates to the national republican convention, took place last night. The candidates are C. C. Wimbish, E. A. Angier, J. T. Schell and Jackson McHenry.

To work them in teams, they stand this way:

Angler and Wimbish, Molfenry and Schell.

The fight between these two factions has been very active. Angler and Wimbush now seem to be masters of the situation, and their chances loc be masters of the situation, and their chances for election are exceedingly good.

The six wards of this city selected their delegates last night to the district convention, and there were some exceedingly lively times around the meeting places. In the fourth ward there were two meetings, one of which endorsed Schall and the other Angier, both going for Wimbish, however.

CUTTING DOWN THE FORCE.

And Getting the Consolidated Down to an Economical Basis.

Mr. Joel Hurt is in active charge of the Consolidated, and is devoting his time to getting the company's affairs in thorough shape.

One result has been a reduction in the force of employes at the plant and on the lines.

"Now, that we have finished the greater part of the construction," said Mr. Hurt, when asked about the reductions yesterday, "we had a heavier force than was necessary, and the reductions were natural. I have also made a number of changes of men on the line—these for different reasons, most of them for inefficiency. It is probable that there will be other changes, for I expect to get things down to what I consider a business basis."

"Is there any likelihhod of trouble with the men?"

"Is there any likelihood of trouble with the men?"

"Trouble? Oh, no. None of the men are going to throw up a good position when there are so many men anxious to get places on the line. The poor fellows who were induced to go into that strike and, boy octf-business have been—most of them—after jobs ever since. Some of them even came to me with a proposition that they would ride the men who got them into the strike on a rail if I would give them their positions back. Of course I did not agree to that, but it shows how they feel. Yee," he added, "there may be other changes if they are needed for the good of the service."

The acquaintanceship ripened into love, but the young lady's brother did not relish a marriage, and did all he could to prevent a union between the young lady and Mr. Holland.

A few days ago when he returned home from one of his runs he found his sister absent, and in a short time ascertained that she had left with Mr. Holland. Then Mr. Chase quickly learned that Holland and his sister had started to Atlanta. Without wasting any time he came to Atlanta, too, and Sunday visited Chief Connolly, asking his assistance in locating his sister and Holland. The case was given to Detective Looney, who yesterday morning found the young lady in a quiet boarding house.

A MOVE MADE.

Receiver Plant's Attorney Asks Judge Clarke to Take Action,

AND LAYS THE FACTS BEFORE HIM.

Judge Clarke Sets Friday, March 4th, for the Final Hearing of the Case-Mr. Garrett Summoned.

The scramble of the two receivers for the possession of the little Atlanta and Florida road bobbed up again yesterday. It came to the front this time in the shape of a proceeding before Judge Clarke, presenting the facts in the case that he might take Such action as they justify.

This move was made by Mr. Marion Erwin, attorney for Judge Speer's receiver, Mr. R. H. Plant.

Mr. Erwin yesterday tendered to Judge Clarke a bill setting forth the facts from the standpoint of Mr. Plant, and asking for some action in the matter.

He claims that Judge Speer appointed Mr. Plant three hours before Judge Clarko ap-pointed Captain T. W. Garrett,

Mr. Plant, he alleges, was appointed on Wedresday, February 9th, at 9:40 o'clock in the morning. Savannah's standard time, he says further, is thirty-six minutes ahead of the standard time of Atlanta, which would make standard time of Atlanta, which would make the appointment at 9:04 o'clock by Atlanta time. Captain Garrett, he alleges, was not appointed until 11:15 o'clock on the morning of the same day.

He then recites the full facts following the two appointments, the request of Mr. Alex. C.
King made to Captain Garrett to relinquish possession of the road, his refusal to do so, and the other proceedings in the court.

He claims that Receiver Plant is the lawful receiver of the road by reason of being appointed prior to the appointment of Captain Garrett. The bill for his appointment was regular and in the jurisdiction of Judge Emory Speer. Therefore, his appointment is legal, and should stand.

The bill was tendered to Judge Marshall J.

and should stand.

The bill was tendered to Judge Marshall J. Clarke, in was tendered it. After considering it he set Friday, the 4th instant, for a full hearing of the case.

He also issued an order summoning Captain T. W. Garrett to appear before him Friday morning at 9 o'clock to show cause why he should not surrender the road over to Receiver Plant.

Plant.

The order was a somewhat unusual one, as it required a receiver appointed by himself to appear before him and show cause why he should not deliver the road which he had been appointed to take charge of.

Then the fight will be made next Friday morning, and it promises to be stubborn and holly contested. Both sides are plumed for battle, and neither will give up without a struggle.

Fashion is a pleasant tyrant, whose sway we submit to without a murmur and glory in the servitude. In nothing is Fashion more a thing of life than in Dress Goods. None are allowed to question its caprices. The uncrowned queens and the wondering princesses over the world look to Paris, the center, for the new styles.

We are opening the most superbly elegant line in NEW PARISIAN effects. These imported Suits are the acme of magnificent beauty. Mr. Johnson, who is yet in New York, is fortunate in his selections. The New York firemen are traveling through the south. They are now in New Orleans, and will come from that city to Atlanta. They will spend next Friday in the city, and will be shown about Atlanta by the old No. 1 vetages.

They have with them the old hand engine they used to work in New York, and it will be stored in the engine house of No. 4 while they are in Atlanta. There are about eighty of them, and they will be in uniform. They also have their wives with them, and travel on a special train of Pullman cars.

They are accompanied by the famous Hall's Old Guard band, of Now York. It goes without saying that they will have a great time in Atlanta.

IMMENSE IMPORTATIONS. Dr. W. Lamb, drug inspector at the port of Philadelphia, writes:

"I have found the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract especially good for persons convalescing from fever, in cases of dyspepsia, for mothers nursing, and in cases of weakly children, and also in lung troubles. About a million of bottles imported have passed my inspection in the custom house satisfactorily for the past five years."

The Old Guard Band.

Hall's celebrated Old Guard band, of New York city, is booked to appear in the city at the Edgewood Avenue theater on Friday, March 4th, when a flue programme is assured. An afternoon and an evening concert are to be given.

Conductor H. A. Hall, the conductor £1 d saxophone soloist of the band, is one of the few musicians that have mastered that very difficult instrument, the saxophone. As all musicians know, the saxophone is about the most difficult instrument known upon which to execute a solo.

Master Frank Hurt, a wonderfully clever boy cornetist, is also with the band. Among the other soloists are Mr. W. S.My-grants, cornet; Mr. A. J. Gore, cuphonium; Herr Carl Schubert, clarinet; Signor Guer-ressi fluit. resi, flute.
The band, after leaving here, is to give concerts in Charleston, S. C., Richmond, Va. and Washington, D. C.

That was the terrible experience of a prominent resident of Oakland station yesterday

The wounded man's condition is critical and he is not expected to survive the distressing accident. A mile beyond West End lives Bob Sims, a young farmer. The place is near Oakland station, on the Central road, about four niles from Atlanta. Sims has been annoyed for some time by a yearling that pranced about wildly and com-mitted a great deal of damage about his farm. Yesterday morning he went to Mr. Charles Tucker, the proprietor of the general store at Oakland, and asked him to put an end to the animal. Mr. Tucker readily complied, and going to the rear of his store procured his re-volver, a Smith & Wesson, of 44 caliber.

As he started away he met his younger brother John, who joined him, and together he two proceeded to the farm near by. The bull was rushing wildly around. It

Charles hit the bull; John's bullet struck the animal's forehead, and glancing off was buried in the abdomen of Charles. The young man fell to the ground and failed to rise John Tucker ran to the wounded man's side. He was terribly shocked to find him unconscious and bleeding freely from a wound in his abdomen. As soon as possible the young man was car-ried to the farmhouse and given careful attention, while a physician was summoned. The ball was found to have entered a vital portion of his body,

Its course could not be traced, and Tucker's condition was immediately seen to be danger-ous. He could not be removed and he was given stimulants and the developments of the injury awaited. He failed to rally during the afternoon and sank rapidly. Dr. Gilbert re-mained with him and last night pronounced him in a very critical condition, with little chances of recovery.

John Tucker was almost prostrated at the distressing accident. Both young men are very well known in the section round about which they live. John is twenty-three years old, is a farmer and is very well known in Charles, the injured man, is five years his senior, and has been keeping the general store at Oakland for a number of years.

There can be seen, sitting at a table in the office of the Kimball house, a gentleman styling himself "The King of the Knife." That he deserves the title none can dispute. With a common pocket-knife he will cut on cards of different sizes most exquisite designs, such as birds, flowers, ships, etc. He also cuts names in script that outrivals the best Spencerian sol olar. He is wonderful—we might add remarkable. Crowds are constantly around his table, and, judging from the amount of orders he receives, shows how our citizens appreciate his extremely artistic genius.

BATTLE OF ATLANTA.

The New Cyclorama Has Captured the Town.

Large Crowds Visit It Daily-It Is Pro nounced by All Those Who Visit It Far Superior to Mission Ridge.

When Mr. Paul Atkinson announced that he and his associates would place on exhibi-tion in Atlanta a cyclorama of the "Battle of Atlanta" that would surpass in grandeur and magificence the great battle of "Mission Ridgo," there were many who doubted his ability to do so. But the great attraction was opened last week to the public—and the unanimous verdict is that it is far superior to the "Mission Ridge"

The troup painting, horses and general action is superior to anything ever seen on canvas. It is without doubt one of the greatest battle scenes ever produced and it is meeting with great success.

It is an attraction that not only Atlanta but the entire state may well feel proud of. In fact, every southerner will find in it the only cyclorama that does justice to the cause of the south. The glorious valor of her heroes is wonderfully portrayed, and every old confederate and every one who sympathized with the south, will see this magnificent attraction. Every stranger who visits the city will find in this "Battle of Atlanta" one of the greatest attractions ever witnessed in the south.

Where Does Mr. Cleveland Stand? Mr. Cleveland is now in a position where, in justice to himself and his democratic followers, he cannot much longer delay the announcement of his purposes. It is true, the position which he occupies is not of his own seeking; he has been placed there by the inconsiderate action of those who profess to be his friends; yet the time is rapidly approaching, if, indeed, it be not already here, when he will be compelled to declare how far he Intends to follow the contingent which, In his name, is making an attack on the democratic organization. In short, Mr. Cleveland will have to declare himself, and the longer this declaration is delayed the more rapidly will he lose his hold on the affections of the democratic party. He will be compelled to declare whether he is in favor of the party organization, or whether he proposes to continue to lead the attack which is now made on it in his name. This is a very serious matter for Mr. Cleveland and it will grow more serious the longer he delays the declaration which the party will demand of him.

There have been hints and intimations from Mr. Cleveland's foolish friendsand he has a larger following of this class than any public man within our recollection-that he is larger than his party; that on him alone depends the issues of reform to which the party is committed. But it is not so. Mr. Cleveland is not bigger than his party. He is important only as a democrat; he owes to the party his position and his influence. The honors are not by any means even. The party has done a great deal more for him than he has ever done for the party.

Considerations of this kind, and others of more importance, must surely press Mr. Cleveland to make as prompt and as clear a declaration of his position as he did when he wrote his anti-silver letter to the reform club. The contingency is upon him. Men professing to be his friends and representatives-professing to have charge of his political interests -are now engaged in attacking the democratic organization in New York. This attack is made in Mr. Cleveland's name and in his behalf. There is no concealment of that fact: it is loudly proclaimed and advertised.

The mask of democracy, under which the movement was begun, has been thrown off. Last Saturday a meeting of those who are engaged in this movement was held in New York city. Naturally it was held on Wall street-No. 10 Wall street. At this meeting ex-Secretary Fairchild was elected chairman, and Mr George William Curtis treasurer! Think of it! Mr. George William Curtis, the leader of the mugwumps, engaged in leading this so-called democratic attack on the democratic organization. There is nothing surprising in the fact that Mr. Curtis should be leading an assault on the democratic organization. He has been employed in that business for more than a quarter of a century, and, while he has not always supported the republican candidates, he has been consistently antidemocratic all the way through. Last fall, he opposed the democratic party in New York state with all his power, and made a Fassett organ of Harper's Weekly. It is not surprising, we say, that Mr. Curtis should be willing and eager to lead an assault on the democratic organization in New York state, but it is both surprising and illuminating to discover that the friends of Mr. Cleveland, pretending to be moving in the interest of the democratic party, should be willing to place in Mr. Curtis's hands a certificate of leadership.

It is a performance that lifts the lid from the movement, and gives the whole thing away. It shows beyond all question that the movement which was begun as a democratic protest against an early convention has degenerated into a mugwump effort to destroy the democratic party. Mr. Curtis himself is an eloquent witness to this fact. When this movement was merely a democratic protest he criticised it severely in the editorial columns of Harper's Weekly, pointed out its essential weakness and showed that it had no reason for existing. The fact that Mr. Curtis now flourishes forth as one of the leaders of the agitation that followed the protest demonstrates beyond the shadow of a doubt that the movement has taken the shape of a mugwump and anti-democratic attack on the organization. If any further evidence were needed it would be found in the further fact that The New York World and all other genuine democratic influences have fallen away from the movement in disgust.

This is the situation as it presents itself. No democrat who cares a thrip for the success of the party will tolerate or countenance the anti-democratic ferment that is now going on in New York city. No genuine democrat sympathizes with it.

Where does Mr. Cleveland stand? The movement is big with fate for him. He cannot afford to tolerate this assault on the democratic organization even by his silence. The leaders who are busy in it are using his name; they are striving to employ his influence and popularity to further their efforts at disorganization. Mr. Cleveland was heroic enough in his treatment of the silver question; let him show something of the same spirit now. He cannot be silent and retain the confldence of the great body of democrats who believe in him. He cannot remain a democrat and countenance this treacherous attack on the democratic organization.

The foolish and uncalled-for protest against the February convention in behalf of Mr. Cleveland had already weakened the hold which he had on the party, but it had not discredited his standing as democrat. This new movement, led by George William Curtis, is a different matter. Its avowed purpose is to demoralize the organization on which the democrats depend for victory. Under these circumstances, Mr. Cleveland cannot remain silent without giving up once for all his position as a democratic leader. His proest against this sinister assault on the party should be prompt and vigorous. Every hour that it is postponed will add to the suspicion that he hopes to profit in some unexplainable way, by this mugwump effort to break down the demo organization at the very point where it is most essential to democratic Lombroso's notable book, "The Man of Genius," is under fire, and the critics make some good shots. According to Lombroso, men of genius are generally of smaller stature than ordinary men, and in support of this position he gives a list of sixty short men and thirty tall men. The New York Evening Post declares that the list is not accurate, and includes insignificant names among the short men. The Post says:

Taking, however, a list of great men that was drawn up some years ago, without the slightest thought of their stature, and which, therefore, may be supposed to afford a fair sample, we have ooked up the heights of as many of them as we could, with the following result:

Men.—Alexander, Archimedes (?), Arisotle, Francis Bacon, Beethoven (5 ft. 5 in.), A. Comte, Descartes, Epicurus (??), Erasmus, Faraday, Frederick the Great, Garrick, Jacob Grimm Harvey, Warren Hastings, Horace, Howard, Kan Thomas a Kempis, Kepler, Locke, Louis XIV. Meddelsshon, Montesquien, Mozart, Napoleon, Schopenhauer, Wagner, St. Francis Xavier-29. Middie-sized Men.—Attila, Burns (5 ft. 10 in.), Calvin, Camoens, Cromwell (5 ft. 10 in.), Dante, Jeanne (d'Arc, George Eliot, John Hunter, La-grange, Linnæus, Michiavelli, Mahomet, Clark Maxwell, James Mill, Milton, Rachel, Adam mith, Spinoza-15.

Tall Men.-Alcibiades, Aquinas, Balzac, Bismarck, Boyle, Cæsar, Carlisle, Champollion, Charlemagne, Clive, Columbus, Constantine, Darwin, Durer, Dumas pere, Queen Elizabeth, Emerson, Fielding (over 6 ft.), Gilbert Goethe, Haw-thorne, Helmholtz, Alexander von Humboldt, thorne, Helmholtz, Alexander von Humboldt, Lavoisier, Leonardo da Vinci, Lessing, Abraham Lincoln, J. S. Mill, Mirabeau, Moliere, Moltke, Peter the Great, Petrarch, Rumford, Schiller, Shelley (5 ft. 11 in.), Mrs. Siddons, Tennyson, Titian, Voltaire, Washington, Daniel Webster, Wellington, William the Silent-44.

Regarding Lombroso's assumption that genius is insanity, our contemporary makes the point that he instances only one hundred cases of insanity at some time in the lives of 3,000 persons of intensely active brains, which it thinks is not at all remarkable, Perhaps genius instead of being a disease is simply a phenomenal development. Naturally when such minds work too actively under unfavorable conditions, derangement follows, and then we have what people call the aberrations of genius. The book under review is brilliant, very suggestive, and very unsatisfactory.

The Government and the Press.

A bill pending in the present congress proposes to arm the postmaster general with the authority to declare newspapers and pamphlets non-mailable, including their future issues, if they contain a certain class of advertising matter concerning drugs, medicines. apparatus and treatment relating to diseases common throughout the world.

In a word, this bill would make the postmaster general a censor of the press, and an unfair partisan official would in all proba bility be tempted to stretch his power under the law to cripple newspapers of the opposite party.

We cannot afford to trust any man or set of men with this dangerous power. It savors of Russian methods and would make the boasted freedom of the press a mere mockery. Newspapers sometimes lapse into various improprieties, but the sentiment of their readers-the public opinion of the nationmay be relied upon to correct such evils and induce journalists to respect the wishes and prejudices of their patrons.

Thomas Jefferson, at a time when newspapers were below the present standard, wrote: "I would rather live in a country with newspapers, and without a government, than in a country with a government, and without newspapers." He valued the press because it was free, and was a barrier in the way of oppression and centralization. But what would the press be, if the law made it subject to the whims and prejudices of every Jack-in-office who was willing to lick the feet

Do MR. CLEVELAND's friends in New York egard Mr. George William Curtis as a genuine democrat?

THE PROFESSED friends of Mr. Cleveland have called in the services of Mr. George William Curtis to aid them in breaking down the democratic organization in New York. Having gone this far, they might as well in voke the aid of Platt and Fassett.

THE FOLLOWING brief comment of The Athens Banner has been called to our attention: Hon. John T. Glenn has appointed a committee of fifteen to organize the state for Hill. We notice that the fifteen are able and representative notice that the inteen are able and representative citizens of Atlanta, but would kindly suggest for the good of Mr. Hill's candidacy in Georgia, that it would be much better for each county to do its own organizing. Atlanta is-the pride of Georgia, but fifteen of her best citizens will hardly be able o organize the state for Hill.

The editor of The Banner surely did not read the account of the Atlanta meeting, which authorized the appointment of the committee which has issued an address concerning the mportance of organization to put Georgia on the side of democratic success, or he would have known that the purpose of the meeting was to do just what The Banner says should be done-"to have every county do its own organizing." Atlanta simply started the ball in motion, and the meeting appointed a committee on local organization and another comnittee to urge every county in the state to do likewise. This committee has simply issued an address urging every county in the state to do as Fulton county is doing—organize.

THE SITUATION in Germany seems to be

THE NEW YORK MORNING ADVERTISER has the following: "And so it seems that Matt Crimm, the rising young novelist, is really a girl, after all. There has been a hot and bitter discussion as to the sex of this writer for several weeks, and many 'authentic sources' of information have, as is usual in such cases, been drawn upon to settle the question. At last, driven to it by sheer despera-tion, the young woman herself writes as follows to an immediate friend: 'Unless all the conclusions of science are wrong, I am a girl.' This is a clincher, or at least it should be; but the information hucksters will probably still continue to proclaim superior knowledge. Sex in authorship, however, is a matter of very small moment. The quality of the work turned out is all that is of any

A WRITER in The Washington Star says: "The Emperor Napoleon could never snoke, although when in Egypt he several times attempted to do so in order to please the people. On one occasion, when the Persian ambassador presented to him, on behalf of the shah, a very valuable and gorgeous pipe, thickly encrusted with diamonds and rubies, Napoleon's attendant filled the p'pe and a light was applied, but in the way the emperor ent to work no smoke would have appeared had he hold the stem the balance of his reign. He nerely opened and shut his lips in the energetic manner of a mechanical figure. The observant and grave attendant showed emperor was unable to manage it, until, tired and vexed with repeated failures, he at last desisted, saying: 'Constant, do you light the pipe. I can-not.' This was done and the pipe was returned to him with the tobacco burning at a furious rate and a tremendous amount of smoke. Soon veiled in smoke the unfortunate Napoleon was again in difficulty; the smoke, which he did not know how to get rid of, went down his throat and up out through his eyes and nose. As soon as he re-gained his breath he gasped the words: 'Take it away! What an infection! What pigs they must Fifty-one new dentists received their beplomas yesterday afternoon at DeGive's was created by an effort being made to establish an auxiliary observatory at Graht park.

Since the weather service has become a part of the idepartment of agriculture, every improvement possible has been made. It has been ascertained that the meterological observations made in the center of large cities are influenced to such an extent by roofs, pavements and other mineral substances, that they are not sufficiently accurate to secure the information desired for the agricultural districts, consequently the department has decided to establish meterological observatories in the suburbs, which will be free from these influences as an auxiliary to the central bureaus.

Atlanta has been mentioned as one of the few cities in the country as being entitled to such an improvement in its weather service, and the effort to secure the additional observatory will probably be successful, provided satisfactory arrangements can be made for the building. opera house. THE RESULT OF A BOILER EXPLOSION.

A Terrible Casualty Awakes Savannah Early Yesterday Morning-The Cause a Mystery

SAVANNAH, Ga., February 29 .- [Special.]-By the explosion of the boilers at the machine shop of the Savannah, Fiorida and Western Railway Company this morning, John C. Murphy, the engineer, and J. Hopkins, colored, fireman, were killed, and Ossie White, colored, porter, so badly injured that he will probably die tonight.

The explosion occurred about half an hour efore the mechanics arrived at the shops. If it had been that much later a score or more would have been killed. The were situated in a large two-story brick building, the upper floor of which was used as a pattern shop. Here the accumulated patterns of many years were stored. The building was totally wrecked. The force of the exoslon was so great that hardly one brick was left upon another. Great pieces of the boiler and of the timber in the building were picked up a quarter of a mile away.

The planing mill, the machine shop and the storehouse, three adjoining buildings, looked as if a Gatling gun had been turned loose on them, so perforated were their roofs and sides by the flying fragments. Carolina Floyd, a colored man who fired no early Monday morning, had just turned the engine over to the engineer, and left the building when the explosion happened. As he passed by the boilers on his way out, he saw that the register only showed a pressure of sixty pounds. He escaped unhurt.

The loss outside of the patterns is placed at $10,000. It is difficult to estimate the loss from the destruction or damage to patterns but it will run up into many thousands of dollars. The boilers were of the best make and comparatively new. The cause of the explosion must remain a mystery. The shock created the impression that Savannah was to be disturbed by earthquakes again, and caused much alarm among the timid all over the

Both of these buildings were entirely consumed. Both of these buildings were entirely consumed. The box factory was an old structure, built five years ago and never completed. It has since been used as a church and political quarters.

The fact that the building was unoccupied, the lateness of the hour and the headway that it got, are all conducive to the theory of incendiarism. The loss is about five hundred dollars. The fire lasted an hour and a half.

That movement in New York city, dignified by the name of revolt, would not live an hour beyond a manly rebuke administered by the ex-president.

Let Grover Cleveland, by word of mouth or by letter, say: "I forbid this shameful buckstering in my name," and nothing more would be heard of the Syracuse convention.

It is a critical hour for Grover Cleveland. His reputation as a patriot and as a loyal democrat is trembling in the balance.

A DIVINE'S HATCHET

Brought Down with Force Upon the Head of a Church Trustee.

MOTORMAN M'CORD'S TALE OF WOE.

He Was the Center of Attraction in Lively Family Row, and He Got the Worst of It.

A bleeding chin, where a beard had been. A preacher's blows and woman's woes. ese were the features in a highly sensa tional personal encounter yesterday morning.

A preacher and one of his flock were the rincipal figures in the difficulty, which ended for nearly three years Rev. W. W. Brewer has been living at No. 11 McMillin street, not far from Marietta. In the same house J. C. McCord has been residing with his wife. The former is the pastor of the Mount Pleasant Congregational church, the latter a nember of the congregation and one of its McCord is a motorman on car No. 45, running on Marietta street. He is in consequence away from home nearly all the time. Recently rumors of a startling nature reached his ears. They were to the effect that the preacher was unduly familiar with his wife.

The motorman paid no further attention to these reports than to keep a close watch of his reverend brother. This led, he says, to his discovering Rev. Mr. Brewer implant a kiss upon Mrs. McCord's cheek a week ago. In the face of all this, friendly feelings were impossible. Bad blood was stirred up and friendly relations between pastor and trustee were conspicuous by their absence. Yesterday morning the motorman stopped off his car at 10 o'clock, to run to his home nearby and find out why his breakfast had not been sent him as is customary every day. He met his wife and began roundly abusing her.

Then, it is charged, he struck her twice in the face and continued his rough words. Mrs. Brewer rushed up and rebuked Mc-Cord for his conduct. He turned upon the ninister's wife and directed his abuse at her. This attracted the divine to the scene. He grabbed a scantling fully four feet long and made for the motorman. The women screamed and it took several persons who were present to hold the excited and worthy preacher back.
He dropped the stick of wood and they relaxed their hold. Quick as a flash he picked by, and rushed at the man who had insulted his wife. McCord tried to reach some weapon, but in an instant the preacher struck him a terrible blow over the head with the deadly hatchet. The hatchet cut through his hat and sunk deep into McCord's head. Another blow followed. McCord dodged and the keen blade descended upon his shoulder, gashing it up a hatchet that was lying on the ground near

The motorman then closed in with the minister, who was forced to drop the ugly weapon. McCord grabbed the preacher's long, flowing board, and amid the divine's shricks scattered the hair about the yard. Another vigorous pull and still more vigorous yells, and the hirsute appendage was gone. Then pastor and parishioner used nature's weapons. They went at each other with fists and fought like tigers. A dozen well-directed

She was carried indoors completely prostrated and in a very serious condition. Rev. Mr. Brewer quickly sent for a bailiff of Judge Horton's court and had the motorman arrested for assault and battery.

He himself went free.

The justice bound McCord over in the sum of $100. Bail was furnished, and the man was released. His injuries were very painful, and may prove dangerous. His head is fearfully gashed and his shoulder cut.

The affair stirred up the intensest excite ment in the neighborhood, and developments of a lively nature are being looked for. The Men Whose Pictures "Will Be Sus-

The attendance at the People's Party Club meeting held in Johnson's hall on East Alabama street last night was between forty and fifty.

President Kennedy took a happy view of it, though, saying: "If you are not to be complimented on your numbers, you are on your intelli-

President Kennedy stated that the previous meetings, pending the adoption of a constitution, were is the nature of experience meetings. He opened the speaking by declaring that the toiling masses have begun a great reform movement to save themselves and the country from ruin.

The president stated that he had no opportunity to prepare a speech, but notwithstanding this he was frequently applauded.

There were cries for Mr. Parker, the delegate to the recent St. Louis convention, and the young attorney was urged to take the platform, which he did. He had not come prepared to speak either, he stated, but he would tell of what was done at "the noblest convention any set of men ever held."

"the noblest convention any set of men ever held."

In response to numerous calls for "Brother Cramer," the vice president of the club took the stage. He said he would take off his overcoat before starting to speak, and as he took out his handkerchief he remarked that the grip has a hold on him, as the people will have on the politicians of both parties before long. Mr. Cramer raked the old parties fore and aft, to the entertainment of his hearers, who showed their sympathy by applanding him.

Mr. Cramer criticised Colonel Livingston for not going into the third party.

He looked upon every man present as one of the fathers of the reform movement and predicted that their pictures would be hung on the walls as the pictures of Washington and Jefferson are. Two or three smiled, probably at the thought that the pictures might be turned to the wall, and the speaker said they could smile, but time would prove the truth of his words.

Mr. Jones, of Clayton county, asked to be excused from making a speech, something which he had never attempted. He assured his brothers that Clayton would give a majority for third party candidates at the polis, and the audience cheered.

President Taliaferro, of the Fulton County Alli-President Taliaferro, of the Fulton County Alliance, made a humorous speech. He said that after the war he tried to farm and go to school, and got along pretty well until congress got to monkeying with the finances. Then things went wrong and kept gotting worse until he believes he would be better off if he had done nothing all this time. He had been willing to follow President Livingston until congress got an opportunity to show the country whether it intended to do anything or not. Now he has came to the conclusion that the people will have to go outside of the old parties for relief. Mr. Christian, of The People's Party Paper, read ex-senator Ellington's letter of regret at not being present.

A few more brief speeches were made and the club adjourned.

Its Fame Spreading Throughout the SouthThe "Pirates" to Be Repeated On the 9th.

The Atlanta Opera Club held a very full and enthusiastic meeting at the rooms of the Northern Society last night. Mr. A. H. Merrill presided. He announced that the benefit to Messrs. Simpson and Mayer would be given at the Edgewood Avenue theater on the night of Wednesday, March 9th. It was regretted that the performance could not be given at DeGive's, since the members of the company are so familiar with that house from their three splendid appearances there last week, but the booking would not permit.

Tickets were distributed among the members and they will be sold commencing this morning. They will also be placed on sale at various prominent points in the city. Prices, $1, 75 cents and 50 cents, according to location. It is certain that the audience will be even larger than any of those which witnessed the first performance. The "Pirates" will be repeated with the complete orchestra, costumes and stage settings, and the production will surpass the first ones, since the club has become thoroughly easy in the various parts from the numerous presentations.

The fame of the Atlanta Opera Club has already spread. Mr. Simpson vesterday received a letter from New York, containing a business proposition concerning the club, and one from a prominent gentleman of Macon, saying there is great desire in that city to see the club in the "Pirates." The Library Association, of Columbus, is making an endeavor to secure the club, and there has been talk of going to Savannah, Athens, Augusta and other cities. At the meeting hast night this question was thoroughly canvassed, and it was found that nearly all the members could arrange to go. It will be a very formidable undertaking, however. The club is not in the show business, and of course will not leave Atlanta except as a special favor, and then only in case expenses are guaranteed. The Epwinses of more than eighty people would be very heavy, and only a very strong association could take the

THE NEW YORK MARKET. The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock

Exchange. NEW YORK, February 23.—The market today opened the new week with a renewal of excitement over Coal stocks, and great lactivity in those shares was again accompanied by phenomenal movements in their prices, which were all in the upward direction. The rest of the market sympathized to a limited ex-tent, but New England and New York Central are the only ones to score any material improvement from the rise. Delaware and Hudson was the center of interest this time, and while the suggestion that another con bination, in which Pennsylvania would be interested bination, in which Fennsylvania would be interested, and in opposition to the Reading syndicate, caused a great deal of hesitation, the rumor that Vanderbilt had obtained control of the Delaware and Hudsor, and would work the road in harmony with the older combination, secured many believers, and a sharp rise in other coalers, and also in New York Central. There was been means well with your section of the results of the coalers, and also in New York Central. was by no means activity nor excitement attending the late developments in that line, but transactions are very large, and movements in stocks immediately concerned were wide. Delaware and Hudson, at the concerned were wide. Delaware and Hudson, at the best price, was up over 7 pericent, and Lackawanna nearly as much, while Jersey Central rose over 4, and Reading was put to above 60. There was only one weak point in the list, and that was the Distillers, which continued to decline slowly but steadily, while other Industrials were firm, though quiet. The opening was strong and active, and unusually heavy buying by a London house created a bullish feeling, which was quickly reflected in purchases for long account and material advances. Interest in Coal stocks, how ever, soon overshadowed the rest of the market, and ever, soon overshadowed the rest of the market, and heavy advances in those shares completely dwarfed ements in other shares. The improv values, however, was checked temporarily by the an nouncement of the taking of over $1,000,000 of gold for export, but the check was of short duration, and the advance was soon resumed. Realizations also the advance was soon resumed. Realizations also held the list down in the last hour, but the market closed firm and hopeful at or near the best prices of the day. The final gains included Delaware and Hudson, 5%; Lackawanna, 5%; Persey City, 3%; New York Central, 2; Sugar, 1%; Cordage, 1%; New England, 1%, and Union Pacific and Canada Southern, 1 er cent each. > Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Circular. NEW YORK, February 29.—The Liverpool marke this morning opened at a decline of 2-44d for futures Spot sales were 10,000 bales. Our early cables advise Spot sales were 10,000 bales. Our early cables advise a good demand from consumers, and say that the decline speculatively was due entirely to the weakness of the New York market on Saturday. Later cables from Liverpool advise a further decline of 1-64d in futures and as easy close, which is attributed to the action taken by both masters and men at the English collieries looking toward a reduction in the output, and the consequent advance in the price of coal. This movement promises to become quite general in England, and may perhaps result inja slight advance in the price obtained or the production of the English mines, which would seem to be the only way in which mines, which would seem to be the only way in which it could directly affect the Lincashire trade. It may perhaps have some indirect effect in that it will de perhaps have some indirect effect in that it will de-prive for a time a large number of men of work, but inasmuch as the men themselves acquiesse in the movement we doubt if any serious distress may be looked for. In New York the speculation has con-tinued featureless. The decline in Liverpool was followed by a loss of from 4-5 points at the opening here, but by 1 o'clock fully one-half of this loss had been recovered upon the anticipation of smaller re-ceipts tomorrow. At New Orleans the total arrivals promise to be between 15,000 and 19,000 bales, and the aggregate at all ports will probably exceed 43,000 bales, aggregate at all ports will probably exceed 43,000 bales, against 21,000 bales last week and 17,000 bales last year. against 21,000 bales last week and 17,000 bales last year. For tomorrow receipts at New Orleans are estimated at between 5,000 and 7,000 bales. Reports from the south with regard to the probable reduction in acreage are somewhat conflicting, and there seems to be room for considerable difference of opinion. According to The Charleston News and Courier of the 26th instant, the abhuments of fertilizars from Charleston from the the shipments of fertilizers from Charleston from the 1st of January to the 23d of February exceed those for the corresponding period last year by 133 carloads. Whether this excess of shipment is due to the in-Whether this excess of shipment is due to the increased use of the phosphate as fertilizers, as compared with others, we cannot determine, but in view of the fact that from most other points a decreased consumption of fertilizers is reported, this excess in the Charleston movement is surprising. During the afternion the market continued slowly to improve, closing finally steady at the highest of the day, Saturday's closing prices being freely bid. The improvement seems entirely the result of the quiet absorption of cotton, which is now apparent upon every decline. Receipts for the day are 39,000 bales, which is slightly less that had been expected, and New Orleans receipts less that had been expected, and New Orleans receipts for tomorrow, it is now said, will only be $,000 bales. Unless foreign advices shall be very disappointing in the morning higher prices may be expected here. By Telegraph.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, February 29.—Wheat opened dull but at an advance of %c above the closing figures of Saturday, but the market was inclined to weakness for a time. The higher options were attributed chiefly to the cold wave in the northwest. There was free selling cold wave in the northwest. There was free selling for a time with a saging market, which carried prices down to Saturday's last figures. But the decline left a good profit for some of the recent short sellers, and there was a pretty general impulse to recover, under which there was some restoration of confidence, and prices gradually went up ic from the low point. Good buying orders for New York account appeared in advance, but perhaps the strongest factor was the unexpected result in the visible supply statement, which. pected result in the visible supply statement, which, instead of an increase, scored a decrease. Later private cables were also more assuring and the domestic wate cables were also more assuring and the domestic market turned together.

Corn was inclined to be stronger on the poor grading of receipts and wet weather, which tend to continue that state of affairs. The firmer tone in wheat in the middle of the session also helped corn, but later, when wheat broke, corn was sympathetically affected. May opened &c up at 42%c, touched 42c, advanced to 42%c, weakened and closed at 42%c.

Oats were quiet but rather firm. There was less selling pressure and a good demand to cover shorts, but the market weakened with other grains near the close and closed %c inder Saturday's last figures.

Hog products were stronger with fair local demand; the receipts of hogs was about as expected, but prices at the yards were with shippers as active buyers. Prices for products were affected some sympathetically by the fluctuations in grains, but the close showed advances, particularly in pork, which is up 12%c.

The leading nurses ranged as follows in Chicago Tother and the state of the contract of the throughout the day generally confirmed the Liverpool report, some even quoting it 1d higher. Berlin and Paris were depressed and lower. About one-half of the decline noted Saturday was recovered in the early part of the seasion today, owing principally to the higher Liverpool market, good buying for export and the decrease in the visible supply, which was expected to show a large increase. The probability of a cold wave may also have had something to do with strengthening prices. Later, however, the large receipts in the northwest, lack of interest from exporters and the remarkably favorable weather for the growing winter wheat, all had their effect, and were the cause of a decline, the market closing even lower than Saturday. A few New York speculators were liberal buyers early, but later became free sellers, causing a sharp decline, which, thewod from a scalper's standpoint, would be called a weak feature in the trade. We feel that the breaking up of the winter so early must cause YEARS' EXPERIENCE. that the breaking up of the winter so early must cause very much highter farmers' deliveries in the near future, and the nearer we get to the opening of naviga-tion the lower the freights, and the larger should be the exports. Until these probable conditions become the exports. Until these probable conditions become facts, we see no encouragament for holders. Corn and cats were firm the early part of the session, but later declined in sympathy with wheat, there being fairly liberal selling of speculative loadings. There was a fairly good demand for hog products, much better than the latter part of last week. The reaction in mess pork was caused principally by some of the short sellers buying to secure profits.

THE CITY IS ENJOINED AGAINST SELLING

Dr. Holliday's Lot Today-The Criminal Court Yesterday-Some Divorce Cases-Other Court News,

A valuable lot on Butler street, belonging to Dr. John S. Helliday, was among the lots advertised for sale today by City Marshal

The lot was levied on by the city marshal to collect a claim held by the city against Dr. Holliday for $435.

The claim was for a sewer built through the

The claim was for a sewer built through the lot in question, and Dr. Holliday thought the amount too large and unjustly levied.

He yesterday filed a bill for injunction to enjoin the city from selling the lot today.

The bill was quite lengthy, and attached to it was a map showing the course of the sewer. It appears from the map that the sewer was built along the middle of Butler street until it reaches the lot belonging to Dr. Holliday. Here it leaves the street and takes in the lot. After passing the lot the sewer returns to the After passing the lot the sewer returns to the street. The reason for this deviation is not

THROWN OUT OF WORK.

Thirteen Men Turned Away from the Western and Atlantic Shops. There was a grand landslide in the Western and Atlantic shops yesterday. Thirteen men were given their time and a chance to hunt another job.

Some two months ago quite a number of men working in the shops were let out, and some two months ago quite a number of men working in the shops were let out, and since that time there has been quite a feeling of uncasiness among the mechanics and their friends. A few days ago the feeling of unrest was augmented by a report that the beginning of March would find a smaller pay roll in the shops than the Western and Atlantic road had ever known. Patiently, however, the men awaited the end of the month. That came yesterday, and with it came a notice from Mr. Collier to thirteen of the employes that their presence at the shops would not be expected this morning.

It was simply a case of let out.

Those who go out are Mr. T. B. Mullins and his helper. Mr. Mullins has been in the Western and Atlantic blacksmith shops since 1860, and during the war made gunbarrels for Governor Brown.

With him went Paul A. Tuggle, whose forge has been going in the Western and Atlantic shops for years. His helper goes out with him.

Musin Concert Company. We want every lover of music in Atlanta to bear We want every lover of music in Adams to bear in mind that the great Belgian violinist, Ovide Musin, supported by the charming soprano, Annie Louise Tanner, and a full company of artists, will give one of his fine concerts next Thursday at the opera house. Such occasions ought not to be opera house. Such occasions ought not to be missed, and we hope to see a full house. The St. Paul Globe said of Musin: "Musin plays the violin, as only Musin can play it. He was applauded to the echo, and each encore was no more than the brilliance of the performance merited, which was magnigeient, and the fact was recognized by all those who heard him yesterday. The wonderful case and perfection of his execution, marking his interpretation of the most difficult music extant, has never been surpassed by a violinist in St. Paul. Musin is the musicial heroof the hour."

"The Burglar."

"The Burglar."

"The Burglar."

This is another good play and another good company to interpret it. Two years of success in the northern states make those two points a certainty. The Chicago Evening Journal said of "The Alhambra has a very strong attraction this week, and yesterday audiences that enjoyed it immensely filled both seating and standing room. One of Augustus Thomas's first efforts at dramatic writing was "The Burglar." and no comedy drama has ever enjoyed greater popularity, it appeals to all classes and is as strong m interest as the story from which it was taken. The company, headed by A. S. Lipman, who has been playing the principal character for five or six seasons very successfully, includes Charles Lothian, J. S. Maflitt, Frank Allen, Miss Helen Ottolengui, Miss Cordelia Davega and little Irene Franklin, who makes a precocious Editha. Mr. Lipman's impersonation of William Lewis, the burglar, is strong and effective. It is understood he will star next season in a new piece now being written for him."

Huckins' Soups—Economical, Healthy, Nutritions.

You are cordially invited to our store during the coming week to try the delicious soups of J. H.W. Huckins, of Boston. What wit is to the conversation, soup is to the dinner. Too much cannot be said in favor of Huckins' soups. Mr. J. H. W. Huckins was for seventeen years the chief cook of the Parker house, and he made that hotel celebrated in two hemispheres for its delicious soups. The wealthy and refined families of Boston esteemed these soups so highly that they besonght him to make that his business. He yielded, and for thirty-seven years Huckins' soups have enjoyed the confidence and patronage of the best class of consumers. Huckins' soups are very heavy bodied, containing 65 per cent of choice beef steak, making them economical, nutritious, bealthy. They are deliciously seasoned with heavy bodied, containing 65 per cent of choice beef steak, making them economical, nutritious, healthy. They are deliciously seasoned with the best imported spices, and with fine old imported wines. Unsolicited, these soups have been recommended by all who have used them. They are put up in hermetically sealed cans ready for immediate use, requiring only to be heated, and are then ready to be served. At first these soups were so high that they were a luxury, only to be enjoyed by a few, but the energy and push of this famous house has enabled them to put the price where they are within the reach of all, no longer a luxury only, but a necessity to a good dinner. While not in competition at all with the light-bodied and highly spiced productions, sold to be as good as Huckins', the price of these delicious soups is as low as any. If you have tried these goots we know that you will be glad to avail yourselves of our invitation to call at our store during the coming week and enjoy them again. If you have not, we would request you to call and be convinced that Huckins' soups are the purest, the best, the most palatable and the most economical soups ever prepared.

Remember, they are served from our store, free, for one week, commencing next Monday, February 25th.

AT THE "GYM."

Atlanta Athletes Preparing for Their Exhibition.

IT WILL BE GIVEN ON THE ELEVENTH.

Some Great Sport and Invigorating Exer cise Down at the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium-The Interest Growing.

The local amateur athletes are warming up right lively down at the "gym" nowadays. Professor Drake, the physical director, who has charge of the athletic department of the Young Men's Christian Association, has announced his purpose of having an exhibition on the night of the 11th instant. This is the inducement that is leading the men on to such hard work as they have been doing for the past few weeks.

The exhibition promises to be quite an entertaining one, as there are many fine athletes in training at the "gym," preparing for the

There will be all the events on the programme commonly found arranged for ath-letic exhibitions. There will be running, jumping, vaulting, leaping, putting the shot, running high jump, flat-footed high jump, kicking and everything known to the world of Professor Drake has awakened a lively interes in the "gym" since he took charge in January, and the spacious hall is always filled with young men, middle-aged men and old men actively at work developing their muscles.

At all heurs of the day there are to be found a dozen or more training for the exhibition, putting in many a "good hard lick" before the day comes on.

It is surprising to observe the different classes of men who go to the "gym" for physical culture. Old men with heads whitening beneath the stroke of age are there swinging their Indian class and rawing ground the beneath the stroke of age are there swinging their Indian clubs and running around the big circle for dear life. Of course, they go there for health. They are usually men whose digestive organs have played them false as the years rolled by, and they are at the gymnasium to regain their lost wigor and activity, and this they are doing, too.

Then, there is the young man, the young business man—society man, too, perchance. He goes there for health, too. Young men who lean over tedious deaks all day and lead sedentary lives are glad enough to counteract the bad effects of such living by working an hour or two avery day at the "gym."

or two every day at the "gym."

These are not the classes of men training for the exhibition. They are young fellows who run in every afternoon or at night fresh from school to frolic on the rings and bars.

school to frolic on the rings and bars.

There are some very fine specimens of amateur athletes at the "gym" this season. They will show up finely at the exhibition on the night of the lith, and the people of A tlanta should go out in large numbers to encourage this institution, whose value is really incalculable.

The boys will give an entertainment capable of interesting everyone who goes to see them. of interesting every one who goes to see them.

Tuesday, March 15th, at 4 o'clock, p. m., threestory brick building, on lot 80x130, corner Marietta and Earl streets, the John Davis property.
This is a splendid piece of central business property. The Atlanta saw works occupy thirty feet, being the building formally used by Mr. Davis, for which they pay $000 under a lease which runs until September, 1894.
The building on the other fifty feet is a strong,
three-story new brick building put up by Mr.
Doris forg his own use, but in consequence of the failing health of Mrs. Davis, he finds it necessary to return to Baltimore and has concluded to sell the property. For factory purposes no such a building can be found; built to hold heavy machinery. Oposite is the new Kiser building, occupied by Conklin's factory. The location is good. Marietta street is destined to be a main business street, and the central location gives business street, and the central location gives promise for a rapid increase in value, besides good interest on the investment. It is much better to buy a new well-built building on property than to buy vacant ground, and no man has bought lots on Marietta street that has not made money. Moneyed men need no advice fronjus about where to put their cash. We only ask you to look at the property and see for yourselves.

Nearly one hundred styles of new Suitings and Trouserings are ready in the Mer-chant Tailoring Department. Not simply patches on cards-big, full pieces. The nat-tiest weaves of Europe and America are among them. Skillful fitters and cutters are behind them. The most careful man, the most particular man, can have the nobbiest sort of a Spring Suit on short notice---and a satisfactory Suit, too.

The fabrics that are now ready to be shown are all new. You cannot find an old familiar in all the lot. No, not one. That is an element of progress in our Tailoring business. No grass nor weeds growing there. Newness, freshness, novelty, alertness. "Face to the front" and "Forward, double quick" are the orders.

The materials are exclusive almost entirely. Three-fourths of all we show are to be found only here. The charm of elegant economy suffuses the stock for this Spring.

That imaginary line with Winter and Spring on either side is a No-Man's Land anyhow. We are as warranted in advertising Winter Overcoats and Suits as if winter were still in its depths. Who knows but there's several weeks' wear yet for you this winter in one of these Suits or Overcoats at $9.90, reduced from $12.50, $15, $17.50 and $18.
